50 MC/17/6 - TIMETABLE OF MEETINGS 2017/18

Councillor Rachel Eburne requested that future Committees were not arranged for the dates of the Suffolk Show. She also enquired whom of the Councillors would be attending the Suffolk Show.

Emily Yule – Temporary Assistant Director of Law and Governance, said that none of the Councils had stands at the Suffolk Show but that both Leaders of the Councils had been invited to attend.

Councillor Eburne also asked for clarification of the possibility of Joint Scrutiny Committee meetings and if Members of the Overview and Scrutiny Committees for Babergh and Mid Suffolk should keep all Overview and Scrutiny Committee dates free for both Councils in case a Joint Scrutiny Committee Meeting would take place.

Emily Yule – Temporary Assistant Director of Law and Governance responded that if a matter arisen then the current dates for Scrutiny for Babergh and Mid Suffolk would be use if possible, however alternative dates would be booked if necessary.

Councillor John Matthissen asked for clarification of why some of the Committee meetings had been moved to afternoons rather than evenings.

Councillor Nick Gowrley responded he would take advice from the Chairmen of the Committees and report back to Members.

The timetable of meetings 2017/18 was noted.

51 MC/17/7 - ANNUAL REPORT OF THE JOINT SCRUTINY COMMITTEE 2016/17

Councillor Rachel Eburne, Joint Chair of the Joint Scrutiny Committee presented the Annual Report of the Joint Scrutiny Committee 2016/17. She thanked the Committee and the two task groups set up to during the year for their work.

Councillor Eburne responded to Members' questions and said that the response from the Tenant Forum and local business regarding their experiences of the Babergh and Mid Suffolk District Councils' engagements with the them. Local business felt that the response was good from the Councils and preferred communication by telephone rather than e-mails. However, the Tenant Forum felt that the Councils could generally improve on their engagement with the Tenants despite Officers having tried different initiatives to improve communications with tenants.

RESOLUTION

That the Joint Scrutiny Committee's Annual Report 2016/7 was noted
