Failure of Parties to attend the hearing

If you notify the authority that you do not intend to attend or be represented at a hearing, it may proceed in your absence.

If you have not indicated that you intend to attend the hearing, or be represented, then the licensing authority may either:

- Hold the hearing in the party's absence, taking into account their application, representation, or notice; or
- Where it considers it necessary for the public interest, adjourn the hearing to a specific date and notify all the parties accordingly

Please refer to the accompanying enclosures in respect of the following:

- Rights of a party provided for in regulations 15 and 16
- The procedure to be followed at the hearing
- Any particular points on which the (Licensing) authority considers that it will want clarification at the hearing from a party
